Part A – Preliminary matters

1 Defined terms and interpretation

The Dictionary in Schedule 1:

- (a) defines some of the terms used in this constitution;
- (b) sets out the rules of interpretation which apply to this constitution; and
- (c) clarifies the effect of the Corporations Act on this constitution.

2 Nature of company and liability

- (a) The company is a public company limited by guarantee which is established to be, and to continue as, a not-for-profit company.
- (b) The liability of each member is limited. Each member guarantees to contribute up to a maximum of $1 to the assets of the company if it is wound up while the member is a member, or within one year afterwards, and at the time of winding up the debts and liabilities of the company exceed its assets. The liability of each member is limited to making such contribution and no more.

Part B – Purpose

3 Purpose and activities of the company

3.1 Purpose

The purpose of the company is to promote the prevention and control of human diseases through the application of Medical Radiation Science.

3.2 Activities

The activities of the company may include:

- (a) advocating for patients in relation to Medical Radiation Science;
- (b) involvement in the development of local, national and international policy and practice related to Medical Radiation Science;
- (c) promotion, encouragement, support and facilitation of the advancement of professional standards and pathways for Medical Radiation Science;
- (d) leading and engaging in research and learning related to the disciplines and practice of Medical Radiation Science; and

Part C – Members and membership

4 Membership

4.1 Members of the company

- (a) The members of the company are:
- (i) all properly registered members of the company as at the date of the adoption of this constitution subject to rule 4.1(b); and
 - (ii) any applicant that has been admitted as a member of the company in accordance with rule 4.2;
- and who have not since ceased to be a member.
- (b) As at the date of the adoption of this constitution, a properly registered member of the company that is a:
- (i) Professional Member, Fellow, Life Member, Overseas Member who holds a recognised relevant qualification, Non-Active Member, Retired Member or Provisional Member will automatically become a Voting Member of the company;
 - (ii) Student Member, Affiliate Member, Honorary Fellow or Honorary Member will automatically become a Non-Voting Member of the company; and
- will have the rights and obligations of the class of membership to which that member belongs as described in Schedule 2.
- (c) If an applicant is admitted as a member of the company, the secretary must ensure that:
- (i) the applicant is given notice of admission as a member of the company; and
 - (ii) the name and details of the applicant are entered in the members' register in accordance with rule 4.5.
- (d) The secretary must ensure that each applicant not admitted as a member of the company is informed of this decision. The directors may, but are not required to, provide reasons for the decision not to admit an applicant into membership.

4.2 Becoming a member

To become a member of the company an applicant must:

- (a) complete and lodge a membership application in such form as determined by the directors from time to time which, for the avoidance of doubt, may include applying using the Internet;

- (b) ensure that all information provided when applying for membership of the company is true and accurate and is not misleading or deceptive;
- (c) pay any joining and annual fee that may be required under rule 4.6;
- (d) meet any specific eligibility criteria associated with the class of membership for which the applicant is applying as described at Schedule 2;
- (e) be admitted into membership by the directors or their delegate; and
- (f) satisfy such other membership criteria as the directors may determine from time to time, acting reasonably.

4.3 Members' rights

Each member has the rights associated with the class of membership to which that member belongs as described in Schedule 2.

4.4 Membership not transferable

Membership of the company and the associated rights cannot be transferred or sold in any manner whatsoever.

4.5 Register of members

- (a) A register of members must be kept in accordance with the law.
- (b) Without limiting the requirement under rule 4.5(a), the following must be entered in the register in respect of each member:
 - (i) the name and address of the member;
 - (ii) the date of admission to and cessation of membership;
 - (iii) in the case of a body corporate member, the full name and contact details of its Representative;
 - (i) the class of membership to which the member belongs; and
 - (iv) any other information required by the directors or the law from time to time.

4.6 Membership fees

- (a) The directors may require the payment of joining fees and/or membership fees for a particular class of membership in the amounts and at the time as the directors resolve.

- (b) Notwithstanding rule 4.6(a) and subject to rule 4.6(c), the joining fee and the first year's membership fee, if any, are payable within one month of the member's admission to membership pursuant to rule 4.2.
- (c) The directors may at their complete discretion:
 - (i) determine that the joining fee and/or the annual membership fee be a different amount;
 - (ii) determine that the joining fee and/or the membership fee payable by one or more members or one or more class of members be payable at a different time or times, including by instalments; and
 - (iii) determine, or waive all or some of, the fees payable by one or more members or one or more class of members at any time.
- (d) The joining fee and annual membership fee that may be required under this rule 4.6 will be the amount, and either inclusive or exclusive of GST, as determined by the directors from time to time.
- (e) A member that has not paid the required membership fee in accordance with this rule 4.6 may not exercise any of the rights associated with the class of membership to which that member belongs, including the right to exercise any vote the member may have at a meeting of members.
- (f) For the avoidance of doubt, any reference to a membership fee in this constitution includes an instalment of a membership fee, where such membership fee is payable by instalments pursuant to rule 4.6(c)(ii).

4.7 Membership renewal

The directors may, at their discretion, send a notice to one or more members requiring that member to confirm or to renew membership of the company and/or to confirm or update that member's details (Membership Renewal Notice).

5 Ceasing to be a member

5.1 General overview

- (a) There are a number of reasons why a member's membership will stop. For instance, if a member:
 - (i) resigns from membership. See rule 5.2;
 - (ii) automatically stops being a member. See rule 5.4; or
 - (iii) is expelled from membership. See rule 5.5.
- (b) The directors may adopt such other policies and procedures relating to the disciplining, suspension and expulsion of members as they so determine from time to time so long as they are consistent with the requirements set out in this rule 5.

- (c) Where a member ceases to be a member under rule 5.2, 5.3, 5.4 or 5.5 that member's name must be removed from the register of members.
- (d) Upon the removal of a member's name from the register of members:
 - (i) the member will forfeit all rights and privileges attached to membership and all rights which that member may have against the company arising out of the membership; and
 - (ii) the company will have no liability to such member in respect of the removal from the register of members.
- (e) Any member that ceases to be a member remains liable for:
 - (i) any moneys which may be owing to the company; and
 - (ii) in the case of the company being wound up, within one year of the date of cessation of membership, the relevant contribution under rule 2(b).

5.2 Resignation from membership

A member may resign from membership of the company at any time by providing written notice to the company addressed to the chair or the secretary. Unless the notice provides otherwise, the resignation takes effect from the date the notice is received.

5.3 Non-payment of membership fee

If a member does not pay the required membership fee in accordance with rule 4.6 within one month after the date on which that membership fee becomes due, or such later time as the directors may determine, the directors may cancel that member's membership.

5.4 Automatic stopping of membership

A member's membership will automatically stop if the member:

- (a) dies, or in the case of a member that is a body corporate is dissolved or wound up;
- (b) fails to pay any required joining fee in accordance with rule 4.6 within one month after the date on which that joining fee becomes due or such later time as the directors may determine;
- (c) fails to return a Membership Renewal Notice in accordance with rule 4.7 within one month after the return due date specified in that notice or such later time as determined by the directors; or
- (d) no longer complies with the membership eligibility requirements described at rule 4.2 and Schedule 2 as determined by a special resolution of at least 75% of directors.

5.5 Disciplining, suspension and expulsion of member

- (a) This rule 5.5 describes what needs to happen when considering whether or not to discipline a member. In summary, the process involves:

- (i) putting the member in question on notice and giving the opportunity to provide information; and
 - (ii) passing a directors' resolution to warn, suspend, expel or otherwise discipline that member.
- (b) So long as the steps set out in rule 5.5 are followed, the directors may resolve to warn, suspend, expel or otherwise discipline a member if that member:
- (i) has refused or neglected to comply with the provisions of this constitution or the relevant Branch Guidelines; or
 - (ii) has acted in a way that, in the opinion of the directors, is, or could be, prejudicial to the interests or reputation of the company.

(Member Disciplinary Resolution)

- (c) The directors must give the member in question at least 14 days' notice of the date that the directors will consider the Member Disciplinary Resolution. This notice must be in writing and let the member know:
- (i) that the directors are to consider warning, suspending, expelling or otherwise disciplining the member;
 - (ii) the reasons why the directors are considering taking the determined action;
 - (iii) of the right for the member to give the directors, either orally or in writing, any explanation or defence relevant to the proposed disciplinary action;
 - (iv) the date, place and time of the meeting at which the resolution is to be considered; and
 - (v) of the right for the member to attend the meeting at which the resolution is to be considered but not to be present during any director deliberations or the putting of or voting on the resolution unless the directors resolve otherwise.
- (d) A director that is also a member subject to a Member Disciplinary Resolution is not entitled to vote on that resolution.
- (e) Directors must notify the relevant member in writing about the directors' decision within 10 days after the date a Member Disciplinary Resolution is passed. The directors decision is final.

6 General meetings

6.1 Calling of general meetings

- (a) A general meeting of members may be initiated by:
 - (i) a resolution of the directors;
 - (ii) the Voting Members in accordance with the Corporations Act; or
 - (iii) the court in accordance with the Corporations Act.
- (b) A meeting of members may be held in two or more places linked together by any technology so long as it:
 - (i) gives the members as a whole in those places a reasonable opportunity to participate in proceedings;
 - (ii) enables the chair to determine whether the person participating in the meeting is in fact a member or a Representative or attorney of a member;
 - (iii) enables the chair of the meeting to be aware of proceedings in each place; and
 - (iv) enables the Voting Members in each place to vote on a Show of Preference and on a poll.

6.2 Notice of general meetings

- (a) Subject to the provisions of the Corporations Act dealing with consent to short notice, at least 21 days' notice of a general meeting of members (including an annual general meeting) must be given to each person who is at the date of the notice:
 - (i) a member of the company eligible to receive notices of meetings or their Representative;
 - (ii) a person who is at the date of the notice a director of the company; or
 - (iii) the auditor of the company.

- (b) A notice of a general meeting must specify:
 - (i) the date, time and place of the meeting which, despite the provisions of the Corporations Act dealing with the timing of annual general meetings, may, for as long as the Company is a registered charity, be held at any reasonable date and time;
 - (ii) if the meeting is to be held in two or more places, the technology that will be used to facilitate this;
 - (iii) the general nature of the business to be transacted at the meeting;
 - (iv) the text of any special resolutions to be proposed at the meeting; and
 - (v) any other matters required under the law.
- (c) A person who is entitled to receive notice of a meeting or who is requested by the chair to attend a general meeting is entitled to be present whether or not the person is a member.

6.3 Quorum at general meetings

- (a) No business may be transacted at any general meeting, except the election of a chair and the adjournment of the meeting, unless a quorum is present when the meeting proceeds to business and remains present throughout the meeting.
- (b) The quorum for a general meeting of members is 20 Voting Members or 50% of current Voting Members (whichever number is the lowest) present in person or by proxy. If 50% of Voting Members is not a whole number, then the number is to be rounded down.
- (c) If a quorum is not present within 30 minutes after the time appointed for a general meeting and that meeting is called or initiated by members, then the meeting is to be dissolved. Otherwise:
 - (i) the meeting stands adjourned to a time and venue communicated by the chair of the meeting;
 - (ii) at the adjourned meeting the quorum is 10 Voting Members present in person or by proxy and entitled under these rules to vote at a general meeting; and
 - (iii) if, at the adjourned meeting, a quorum is not present within 30 minutes after the time appointed for the meeting, the meeting must be dissolved.

6.4 Chair of general meetings

- (a) The President must preside as chair at each general meeting.
- (b) If the President is absent or is unwilling to act, then the Vice President, if one has been appointed, must preside as chair at the meeting.
- (c) If both the President and Vice President are absent or are both unwilling to act, then the directors present at the meeting may elect a director present to chair the meeting.

- (d) If the President, Vice President and all other directors are absent or are unwilling to act, then the Voting Members present at that meeting may elect a person present to chair the meeting.

6.5 Conduct of general meetings

- (a) The chair of a general meeting is responsible for the general conduct of the meeting and for the procedures to be adopted at the meeting and may require the adoption of any procedures which are in the opinion of the chair necessary or desirable for:
 - (i) proper and orderly debate or discussion; and
 - (ii) the proper and orderly casting or recording of votes.
- (b) The chair of a general meeting at which a quorum is present may adjourn the meeting from time to time and place to place. However, no business is to be transacted at an adjourned meeting other than the business left unfinished at the meeting at which the adjournment took place.
- (c) Notice of an adjournment and the business to be transacted at an adjourned meeting must be given to all persons who were entitled to receive notice of the meeting the subject of the adjournment.
- (d) In addition to the rights provided for in rule 6.3(a)(iii) and 6.3(c), the auditor of the company (if any) is entitled to be heard at any general meeting which the auditor attends.

6.6 Decisions at general meetings

- (a) Except in the case of any resolution which under this constitution or as a matter of law requires a special resolution, questions arising at a general meeting are to be decided by a majority of votes cast by the Voting Members present at the meeting (including being present by technological means) and that decision is for all purposes a decision of the members.
- (b) In the case of an equality of votes upon any proposed resolution at a meeting of members the Chair may exercise a casting vote if they have not already voted.
- (c) Unless a poll is demanded, a resolution put to the vote of a general meeting must be decided on a show of preference of Voting Members, with each Voting Member present indicating a preference by a means appropriate to that Voting Member and that is readily interpreted and understood by the chair (Show of Preference).
- (d) A Voting Member may only exercise one vote on a Show of Preference regardless of whether that Voting Member also holds one or more proxies.
- (e) A poll may be demanded before a vote being decided by a Show of Preference is taken or before or immediately after the declaration of the result of the Show of Preference:
 - (i) by the chair of the meeting;
 - (ii) by at least five Voting Members present and entitled to vote on the relevant resolution; or

- (iii) by a Voting Member or Voting Members present at the meeting and representing at least 5% of the votes that may be cast on the resolution on a poll.
- (f) Unless a poll is demanded, a declaration by the chair on the result of a vote on a Show of Preference is decisive of the outcome of that resolution. Such declaration does not need to refer to the number or proportion of votes for or against the resolution.
- (g) Except for a poll on the question of an adjournment which must be taken immediately, if a poll is demanded at a general meeting, it will be taken when and in the manner that the chair directs, and in all cases the result of the poll will be the resolution of the meeting at which the poll was demanded.
- (h) A poll cannot be demanded at a general meeting on the election of a chair of the meeting.
- (i) The demand for a poll may be withdrawn.

6.7 Voting rights

Each member has the voting rights associated with the class of membership to which that member belongs as described in the table at Schedule 2.

6.8 Representation at general meetings

- (a) Subject to this constitution, each Voting Member entitled to vote at a meeting of members may vote:
 - (i) in person or, if the member is a body corporate through its Representative;
 - (ii) by proxy in a form as the directors may prescribe or accept; or
 - (iii) by attorney in a form as the directors may prescribe or accept.
- (b) A proxy, Representative or attorney may be a member of the company but does not need to be.
- (c) The chair of a meeting may require any person purporting to act as a proxy, attorney or Representative to establish to the satisfaction of the chair that the person has been validly appointed as a proxy, attorney or a Representative and is the person named in the relevant instrument of appointment, failing which the person may be excluded from attending or voting at the meeting.
- (d) If the company receives a proxy form without the name of the proxy filled in, then the proxy is:
 - (i) the person specified by the company in the proxy form; or
 - (ii) if no person is specified by the company in the proxy form, the chair of the meeting for which that proxy applies.
- (e) A proxy or attorney may not vote at a general meeting or adjourned meeting unless the instrument appointing the proxy or attorney is received:

- (i) at the registered office of the company or at another place or electronic address specified for that purpose in the notice convening the meeting; and
 - (ii) at least 48 hours before the time scheduled for the commencement of the meeting.
- (f) Unless otherwise permitted by the chair, the authority of a proxy or attorney to speak and vote for a member at a general meeting is suspended while that relevant member is present at the meeting.

6.9 Meetings conducted using electronic means

- (a) A member who participates in a general meeting by telephone or other electronic means which allows mutual communication and for that member, if a Voting Member, to indicate a Show of Preference is taken to be present in person at the meeting.
- (b) A general meeting conducted using telephone or other electronic means is taken as held at the place as determined by the chair of the meeting, so long as one of the members involved was at the place for the duration of the meeting.

6.10 Decisions without meetings

Voting Members may pass resolutions and otherwise make decisions outside of a members' meeting in any manner (including through the use of technology) so long as such manner complies with:

- (a) the law; and
- (b) any policies and procedures relating to the passing of member resolutions as determined by the directors from time to time.

Part D – Not-for-profit

7 No profits for members

- (a) Subject to rule 7(b), the assets and income of the company must be applied solely in furtherance of the Company's purpose and no portion of the income or assets of the company may be paid or transferred, directly or indirectly, to any member.
- (b) The company may, with the approval of the directors, make payment in good faith to a member of the company:
 - (i) by way of reasonable and proper payment for any goods supplied or services rendered to the company (including payment as a consultant);
 - (ii) by way of interest on money lent to the company by that member at a reasonable and proper rate per annum not exceeding the rate for the time being charged by the company's bankers on overdrawn accounts;
 - (iii) by way of reasonable and proper rent for premises let by that member to the company;

- (iv) as a result of the members participation in a social bond, or similar, program of the company; and
 - (v) for authorised out-of-pocket expenses reasonably and properly incurred by that member in connection with the affairs of the company.
- (c) For the avoidance of doubt, nothing in this rule 7:
- (i) prevents a member from receiving such services as may ordinarily be provided by the company in the course of undertaking its activities; or
 - (ii) prohibits a member from receiving a benefit that is directly related to membership of the company.

Part E – Directors and secretary

8 Directors

8.1 Number of directors and director positions

- (a) The minimum number of directors is three. Subject to rule 8.1(c), the maximum number of directors is 11.
- (b) Director positions are designated as follows:
 - (i) one position is reserved for, and may only be filled by, the President;
 - (ii) one position is reserved for, and may only be filled by, the Immediate Past President;
 - (iii) six positions are reserved for, and may only be filled by, Branch Directors – being one director from each of the six Branches;
 - (iv) one position is reserved for, and may only be filled by, a director who has been removed from the office of President pursuant to rule 8.13(c); and
 - (v) the remaining director positions are reserved for, and may only be filled by, Board Appointed Directors.
- (c) The directors may change the maximum number of permitted director positions in accordance with the Corporations Act.
- (d) If at any time the number of directors falls below three, the remaining director or directors may act but only:
 - (i) in an emergency;
 - (ii) for the purpose of convening a general meeting of the company; or
 - (iii) for the purpose of increasing the number of directors to three.

8.2 Director requirements

- (a) Subject to rule 8.3, to be eligible to become an Appointed Director or an Immediate Past President of the company, a person must:
 - (i) be 18 years of age or older;
 - (ii) not be ineligible to be a director under the Corporations Act;
 - (iii) not be an employee of the company; and
 - (iv) meet any other criteria relating to the composition of the board and skills and qualifications of directors as may be determined by the directors from time to time.
 - (v) must be a financial voting member.

- (b) Subject to rule 8.3, to be eligible to become a Branch Director or the President (or to remain as a director after being removed as President in accordance with rules 8.13(c) and 8.13(d)), a person must:
 - (i) satisfy the requirements in rule 8.2(a); and
 - (ii) hold AHPRA registration as Medical Radiation Practitioner; and
 - (iii) satisfy at least one of the following requirements:
 - (A) be currently practicing in Medical Radiation Science;
 - (B) have practiced in Medical Radiation Science within six months of their initial appointment as a director and not be permanently retired;
 - (C) be undertaking teaching as part of a recognised relevant qualification in Medical Radiation Science; or
 - (D) be undertaking research in the field of Medical Radiation Science.

8.3 Director positions, requirements and terms of office

- (a) The term of office and eligibility criteria that must be satisfied for each type of director position are set out in the below table:

Director position	How filled	Term of office	Eligibility requirements
Branch Director	The members of each Branch elect a person from that Branch and that person is then appointed by the Branch Committee, in accordance with the Branch Guidelines or as determined by the directors.	Subject to rules 8.4 and 8.5 for the period to the third annual general meeting following that person's appointment as a director of the company or, if the company does not hold an annual general meeting, until the third time an election of directors is held or for a term of three years (whichever is the shortest period of time).	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> (a) Satisfy the director requirements described at rule 8.2(b); (b) be a member of the company eligible for election as a director pursuant to Schedule 2; and (c) be nominated in writing for election by at least seven members from the same Branch in the way determined by the directors from time to time or, where rule 8.3(b) applies, be appointed by the Branch to which that member belongs.
President	Appointed by the directors.	Subject to rules 8.4 and 8.5, for the period to the third annual general meeting after that person was appointed or, if the company does not hold an annual general meeting, until the third time an election of directors is held or for a term of three years (whichever is the shortest period of time).	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> (a) Satisfy the director requirements described at rule 8.2(b); (b) be a member of the company eligible for election as a director pursuant to Schedule 2; and (c) be an existing Branch Director at the time of appointment.
Immediate Past President	A person concluding his or her term as President and being appointed by the directors.	Subject to rules 8.4 and 8.5, until the end of the next annual general meeting after taking up this role or, if the company does not hold an annual general meeting, until the next time an election of directors is held or for 12 months (whichever is the shortest period of time).	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> (a) Satisfy the director requirements described at rule 8.2(a); (b) be a member of the company eligible for election as a director pursuant to Schedule 2; (c) have ceased to hold the position of President immediately prior to taking up the office of Immediate Past President; and (d) consented in writing to remaining as a director.
Board Appointed Director	Appointed by the directors.	Subject to rules 8.4 and 8.5, for a term of up to three years with the precise period determined by the directors at the time of appointment.	Satisfy the director requirements described at rule 8.2(a).

- (b) If a Branch Director vacates his or her position as a Branch Director due to being appointed as President, ceases to be a director of the company or ceases to be a member of the Branch to which that director belongs, then the corresponding Branch Committee may choose to remove and/or replace that director with a new director as it determines. A person so appointed is to fill this Branch Director position until:
 - (i) the next annual general meeting; or
 - (ii) if the company does not hold an annual general meeting, the next time an election of directors is held or for 12 months (whichever is the shortest period of time).

8.4 Director's time in office

- (a) Each director is to remain as a director until the term of her or his office expires or until he or she resigns or is otherwise removed as a director of the company in accordance with the law and this constitution. However, subject to the Corporations Act and rule 8.4(b) and 8.4(c), a person is eligible for reappointment or re-election.
- (b) No person is permitted to hold the office of a director for any more than six continuous years following the adoption of this constitution unless:
 - (i) the person is filling the position of President, or has been removed from the office of President under rules 8.13(c) and 8.13(d)(i);
 - (ii) the person is filling the position of Immediate Past President; or
 - (iii) a special resolution is passed by the directors, and in the case of a Branch Director by a special resolution of the relevant Branch Committee, permitting that person to sit for a further term of up to three years as specified in that resolution.
- (c) A person having held office as a director for six or more continuous years following the adoption of this constitution is eligible for re-election or re-appointment once a period of three years has expired since that person last held office as a director.

8.5 Ceasing to be a director

- (a) In addition to the circumstances prescribed by law (including the Corporations Act and the ACNC Act), the office of any director becomes vacant if the director dies or, unless the directors otherwise resolve to confirm the director's position, if the director:
 - (i) becomes bankrupt;
 - (ii) is convicted of an indictable offence;
 - (ii) no longer complies with the requirements described at rule 8.2; or
 - (iii) fails to attend three or more consecutive directors' meetings in any 12 month period without leave of absence approved by the directors.

- (b) Nothing in rule 8.5(a) prevents a director from vacating his or her office if the director resigns by notice in writing to the company.

8.6 Payments to directors

- (a) Directors must not receive any payment for acting as a director but, subject to rule 8.6(b), are entitled to:
 - (i) be reimbursed for all reasonable authorised travelling and other expenses properly incurred by them in connection with the affairs of the company, including attending and returning from general meetings of the company, meetings of the directors and meetings of committees; and
 - (ii) receive payment for any goods supplied or services rendered to the company (other than as a director), as long as the amount is proper and reasonable in the circumstances.
- (b) Notwithstanding anything else in this constitution, no payment of any kind which is permitted to be paid to a director by this constitution can be made by the company to a director until that payment is approved by:
 - (i) the directors; or
 - (ii) such other person or persons to whom the directors may have delegated such authority in a way consistent with rule 8.16 or rule 8.17.

8.7 Interested directors

- (a) No contract or other arrangement made between a director and the company is voided merely because the director holds office as a director or because of the fiduciary obligations arising out of that office.
- (f) Each director must disclose all personal interests and other matters that could, or do, give rise to a conflict of interest in relation to a matter or decision being considered by the directors.
- (b) Where a director has a material personal interest in a matter to be considered at a meeting, that director must not be present while the matter is being considered at the meeting or vote on the matter, unless the directors who do not have a material personal interest pass a resolution in accordance with the Corporations Act which permits that director to do so.
- (c) Subject to rule 8.7(d), a director who is in any way interested in an arrangement (other than by having a material personal interest) may, despite that interest, be counted in determining whether a quorum is present at any meeting of directors considering that arrangement.
- (d) Rule 8.7(c) does not apply to the extent that it would be contrary to law.

8.8 Powers and duties of directors

- (a) The directors are responsible for managing the business of the company and may exercise all the powers of the company which are not required by the law or this constitution to be exercised by the members.

- (b) The directors must comply with their duties as directors under legislation and common law which are:
 - (i) to exercise their powers and discharge their duties with the degree of care and diligence that a reasonable individual would exercise if they were a director of the company;
 - (ii) to act in good faith in the best interests of the company;
 - (iii) not to misuse their position as a director;
 - (iv) not to misuse information that they gain in their role as a director;
 - (v) to disclose any perceived or material conflicts of interest;
 - (vi) to ensure that the financial affairs of the company are managed responsibly;
and
 - (vii) not to allow the company to operate while insolvent.

8.9 Directors' meetings

- (a) The directors may hold meetings (including by technological means) for the conduct of business and regulate them as they think fit.
- (b) The directors should meet as often as required for the proper discharge of their directors' duties and in any event no less than four times per year.

8.10 Convening of meetings of directors

A meeting of directors may be convened by the President or any two of the directors.

8.11 Notice of directors' meetings

- (a) Notice of a directors' meeting must be given to each current director, other than a director on leave of absence approved by the directors.
- (b) A notice of a directors' meeting must:
 - (i) be given in a way permitted by rule 14;
 - (ii) specify the time and place of and, if relevant, the form of technology for, the meeting;
 - (iii) state the nature of the business to be transacted at the meeting; and
 - (iv) be provided with sufficient time for the directors to properly consider the subject matter contained within the notice and any accompanying materials.
- (c) A resolution passed at a directors' meeting is not invalid just because a director did not receive notice of the meeting provided that:

- (i) the notice was not received because of accident or error;
- (ii) before or after the meeting, the director notifies the company of his or her agreement to the resolution; or
- (iii) the director attended the meeting.

8.12 Quorum for directors' meetings

- (a) No business may be transacted at a directors' meeting unless there is a quorum of directors at the time the business is dealt with.
- (b) A quorum consists of a majority of current directors.
- (c) For the avoidance of doubt, a director is present at a meeting if participating by technological means such as by telephone.
- (d) If, within 30 minutes after the time appointed for the meeting, a quorum is not present, then, without prejudice to the right of those present to discuss but not to vote on any matter, the meeting will be dissolved or stand adjourned to such time, date and place as those present at the meeting decide.

8.13 President and Vice President

- (a) The directors must appoint a Branch Director to the office of President and may appoint a different director to the office of Vice President.
- (b) Once a Branch Director is appointed as President, that person is no longer considered a Branch Director and does not fill a Branch Director position, which therefore leaves a vacancy in the number of Branch Directors that may be filled in accordance with rule 8.3.
- (c) The directors may remove a director from the office of President or Vice President at any time but doing so does not remove that person as a director.
- (d) A director who is removed from the office of President prior to the conclusion of his or her term will, unless that person otherwise resigns or ceases to be a director in accordance with this constitution:
 - (i) if that person has already held office for six or more continuous years, continue as a director for 12 months or until the conclusion of that person's current term of office (whichever is the shortest period of time); or
 - (ii) if that person has held office for less than six continuous years, continue as a director until he or she reaches six continuous years in office or until the conclusion of that person's current term of office (whichever is the shortest period of time).
- (e) A person may only fill the office of President or Vice President for so long as that person is a director of the company.
- (f) The President must preside as chair at each directors' meeting unless he or she is unable to attend or unwilling to act.

- (g) If the President is unable to attend a directors' meeting or unwilling to act, then the Vice President, if one has been appointed, must preside as chair of that meeting.
- (h) If both the President and Vice President are unable to attend a directors' meeting or are unwilling to act, then the directors present at that meeting must elect a person from those directors present to preside as the chair for that meeting.

8.14 Decisions of directors

- (a) A directors' meeting at which a quorum is present is competent to exercise all or any of the authorities, powers and discretions vested in or exercisable by the directors under the law and this constitution.
- (b) Questions arising at a directors' meeting and any other matter to be determined by the directors under this constitution are to be decided by a majority of votes cast by the directors present and a decision of that kind is for all purposes a determination of the directors.
- (c) If there are an equal number of votes cast for and against a resolution at a directors' meeting, then the chair may exercise a second or casting vote in addition to any vote the chair may have as a director of the company.

8.15 Decisions without meetings

Directors may pass resolutions outside of a directors' meeting in any manner (including through the use of technology) so long as such manner complies with:

- (a) the law; and
- (b) any policies and procedures relating to the passing of director resolutions as determined by the directors from time to time.

8.16 Committees and branches

- (a) The directors may resolve to:
 - (i) establish one or more committees or branches consisting of such persons as they determine;
 - (ii) delegate to each committee or branch such of their powers required for the effective and efficient running and administration of the committee or branch;
 - (iii) revoke any or all of the powers delegated to each committee or branch and vary the nature and scope of the powers delegated; and
 - (iv) change the makeup of a committee or branch at any time or dissolve it all together.
- (b) A committee or branch must be conducted, and exercise the powers delegated to it, in accordance with any directions of the directors which, for the avoidance of doubt, may be contained within policies, terms of reference, guidelines, protocols or Branch Guidelines.

- (c) For the purpose of the administration of the company, the company will as at the date of the adoption of this constitution have a Branch in each of the following geographical areas:
 - (i) Queensland;
 - (ii) New South Wales and Australian Capital Territory;
 - (iii) Victoria;
 - (iv) Tasmania;
 - (v) South Australia and Northern Territory; and
 - (vi) Western Australia.
- (d) The administration and requirements for Branches will be determined by the directors and will be set out in the Branch Guidelines.
- (e) Each member of the company automatically becomes a member of the Branch corresponding to that members current place of residence. A member resident in a location that does not have a Branch will therefore not become a branch member.
- (f) A member cannot be a member of more than one Branch at the same time.
- (g) Each member, by becoming a member of the company, agrees to be bound by the relevant Branch Guidelines as may be in place from time to time.
- (h) The directors may continue to exercise all of their powers despite any delegation made under this rule.

8.17 Delegation to individuals

- (a) The directors may resolve to delegate any of their powers:
 - (i) to one or more directors;
 - (ii) to one or more members; or
 - (iii) to one or more employees.
- (b) The directors may delegate their powers for such time as they determine and may revoke or vary any power so delegated.
- (c) A person to whom any powers have been delegated must exercise the powers delegated in accordance with any directions of the directors.
- (d) The directors may continue to exercise all of their powers despite any delegation.
- (e) A delegation under this rule need not be to a specified person but may be to any person from time to time holding, occupying or performing the duties of, a specified office or position.

8.18 Validity of acts

An act done by a director or by a meeting of the directors or a committee attended by a director is not invalidated just because:

- (a) of a defect in the appointment of the director;
- (b) the person is disqualified from being a director or has vacated office; or
- (c) the person is not entitled to vote,

if that circumstance was not known by the person or the directors or committee, as the case may be, when the act was done.

9 Secretaries

- (a) The directors must appoint at least one secretary who may be, but does not need to be, a director.
- (b) The appointment of a secretary may be for the period, on the conditions and, subject to rule 9(c), at the remuneration as the directors determine.
- (c) A director may not be remunerated in his or her capacity as secretary.
- (d) Subject to any contract between the company and the relevant secretary, a secretary of the company may be removed or dismissed by the directors at any time, with or without cause. If that person is a director, such removal or dismissal does not remove that person from office as a director.
- (e) The duties of the secretary include, but are not limited to:
 - (i) ensuring that the necessary registers required by the law are established and properly maintained;
 - (ii) ensuring that any required annual returns and annual reports are lodged with the appropriate regulator on time; and
 - (iii) ensuring the organisation of, and attend, meetings of the members and the directors, including the sending out of notices, the preparation of agenda and the compilation of minutes.
- (f) An act done by a person acting as a secretary is not invalidated just because:
 - (i) of a defect in the person's appointment as a secretary; or
 - (ii) the person is disqualified from being a secretary,if that circumstance was not known by the person when the act was done.

Part F – Winding up and loss of endorsement

10 Winding up

- (g) Before the company is wound up, it must first wind up each of the deductible gift recipient endorsed funds it operates (if any), in accordance with each funds winding up requirements.
- (a) If upon the winding up or dissolution of the company there remains after satisfaction of all of its debts and liabilities, any property or moneys whatsoever (Surplus Assets), such Surplus Assets must not be given or distributed to members and must instead be given or distributed to one or more Eligible Recipients, each of which must, if the company is endorsed as a deductible gift recipient, be similarly endorsed at the time the distribution is made.
- (b) The decision as to which Eligible Recipient is (or which Eligible Recipients are) to be given the Surplus Assets under rule 10(a) is to be determined:
 - (i) by a resolution of the directors at or before the winding up or dissolution of the company; or
 - (ii) if no such resolution is passed, by the Supreme Court.
- (c) Any part of the Surplus Assets consisting of property supplied by a government department or public authority, including any unexpended portion of a grant, must be returned to the department or authority that supplied it or to a body nominated by the department or authority.

Part G – Administrative matters

11 Minutes and records

11.1 Minutes

The directors must ensure that the following minutes are recorded, approved and kept in accordance with the law:

- (a) meetings and resolutions of members;
- (b) meetings and resolutions of directors; and
- (c) meetings and resolutions of committees.

11.2 Inspection of records

- (a) Subject to the law and rule 12.2(b), the directors may determine whether and to what extent, and at what time and places and under what conditions, the minute books, accounting records and other documents of the company or any of them will be open to inspection.
- (b) A member may, upon reasonable notice to the directors, inspect any books, records or documents of the company, provided the information obtained is only used for a proper purpose in connection with membership of the company. In the case of directors' minutes and resolutions, the directors may, at their complete discretion, refuse to provide all or some of the directors' minutes or provide such records in a redacted form.
- (c) The company must establish and administer all registers required to be kept by law and each member must provide the company with such information as is required for the company to comply with this rule. If events occur which would cause the information contained in a register maintained by the company to be inaccurate the member must notify the company in writing of the change within 21 days of the date of such change occurring.
- (d) Unless proved incorrect, the register is sufficient evidence of the matters shown in the register.
- (e) The company must keep all financial and other records required by law.

12 Indemnity and insurance

- (a) To the extent permitted by law, the company indemnifies its officers (both current and past) for all losses or liabilities incurred by the person as an officer of the company including, but not limited to, a liability for negligence or for legal costs on a full indemnity basis.
- (b) This indemnity:
 - (i) may only be for losses or liabilities incurred as an officer of the company (either before or after the adoption of this rule);
 - (ii) does not cover any loss or liability of an officer seeking to be indemnified under this rule if that loss or liability arises from that person's wilful misconduct or fraud; and
 - (iii) operates only to the extent that the loss or liability is not paid by insurance.
- (c) To the extent permitted by law, the company must take out and pay for insurance for the benefit of its officers (both current and past) against any liability incurred by the person as an officer of the company including, but not limited to, a liability for negligence or for legal costs).
- (d) To the extent permitted by law, the company may enter into an agreement (including a deed) with a person who is or agrees to become or has been an officer of the company on any terms and conditions that the directors think fit to give effect to the rights of that person under this rule 13. Any such agreement may also give the person rights to inspect and obtain copies of the books of the company for the purposes, and on such other terms and conditions, as the directors decide.

13 Notices

Any notice, document or other communication required or permitted to be given under this constitution or law may be given in any manner (including through the use of technology) so long as such manner complies with:

- (a) the law; and
- (b) any policies and procedures relating to the giving and receiving of notices, documents and other communications as determined by the directors from time to time.

14 General

- (a) Common seal: The company may, but is not required to, have and use a common seal. If the directors determine that the company have a common seal, then it must be kept and used in accordance with the law.
- (b) Submission to jurisdiction: Each member submits to the non-exclusive jurisdiction of the Supreme Court of the State of Victoria, the Federal Court of Australia and the Courts which may hear appeals from those Courts.
